Kent Haberly welcomed everyone to the meeting. Food, drink, and live music were present. Kent announced that the annual report and financials would be available for anyone who wanted them. Kent also asked for a voice vote to accept new board member Jennifer Martin, and to renew terms for Susan Rowe and Lynn Christofersen. Voice vote was unanimous.

Gabriel Olmsted provided a roll call of past members of the Home Trust board of directors. He also praised past executive director Dave Malsed.

Jodi Monroe introduced future homeowners who are in the process of purchasing homes in Home Trust's Summerlynd neighborhood. She also introduced Vanessa Scee, Jennifer Martin and Derrick Baer. All three gave presentations about their experiences buying homes and why they chose the community land trust model.

Kent ended the meeting thanking staff for their work and thanked everyone for their support.

Having nothing further, the meeting ended at 8 p.m.

Next board meeting will take place at 5 p.m., April 18, at Washington Federal, in Mount Vernon.
